

$26,730 Reimbursement Check

Frank Carcione, Vice President of Correctional Risk Services, Inc. presented a check for $26,730 to Montgomery County Alabama. The reimbursement to Montgomery County was for medical expenses on one of their inmates.

Montgomery County Risk Manager, Scott Krammer, said: "Being partners with Correctional Risk Services, really gives the County peace of mind." By protecting the County's budget against large inmate medical expenses, CRS's Inmate Excess Medical Insurance helped Montgomery County stay within their budget for inmate health care.

Montgomery County is insured under the CRS Inmate Excess Medical Insurance Plan underwritten by the Gerber Life Insurance Company and provided exclusively by Correctional Risk Services, Inc. of Brentwood, Tennessee in partnership with the National Association of Counties (NACo).

Correctional Risk Services, Inc. is endorsed by the National Association of Counties and offers the Inmate Excess Medical Insurance and Medical Claims Management Services to counties around the country. CRS works with 24 counties in 6 states and 125 municipalities in the state of Georgia to reduce the cost of medical care for inmates.
